

Bruce Chisholm, Vice Chair

Committees:

- Governance
- Conduct Review

Bruce Chisholm retired from his career as an educator after dedicating 33 years to the local education system. Bruce has a Bachelor's Degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Educational Administration, and during his career he fulfilled the roles of teacher, Vice-Principal, and Principal. He currently works as a dispatcher and a truck driver for a local trucking company, and has lived in Fort St. John since 1972.

Bruce has been actively involved in the community for over 35 years, and has enjoyed many years of coaching sports in the school division and throughout the community. For much of his teaching career, Bruce was also involved as an executive member of the both local teachers association and administrators association.

Upon retirement, Bruce felt he had the time to dedicate to the NPSCU Board of Directors, and since joining the board, he has spent two years as Board Chair. Bruce enjoys the ongoing learning that is required of him as a Director, and has taken a wide variety of courses through the Credit Union Director Achievement Program. What Bruce values most about his experience on the Board of Directors is the opportunity to use what he has learned to benefit the Credit Union and its members. More, through his work with the Board of Directors, Bruce had the opportunity to participate in a cooperative program that allowed him to travel to Ghana, Africa to work in a supportive role with Credit Unions in the area.
