

2019 Bursary Application

North Peace Savings & Credit Union's (NPSCU) Annual Bursary Program assists students graduating from schools in the communities we serve to further their education through a recognized college, university or vocational institute, for a period of not less than one full academic year.

Policy

North Peace Savings & Credit Union is empowered to:

- Grant bursaries at its discretion
- Choose the amount of the bursary at its discretion
- Withhold this bursary in any year if there are no eligible application, or for any reason deemed good and advisable

Credit Union Membership

Preference will be given to applicants who are either a member or a child of a member.

Education and Eligible Institutions

Candidates must be registered at an accredited post-secondary institution in Canada during the 12 month period following the application deadline. If the recipient is currently a high school student, they must meet the requirements for graduation as defined by the Ministry of Education.

Essay and Financial Need

Candidates must submit an essay of 300-500 words describing their achievements, community or volunteer involvement, educational goals, and financial need.

Letters of Reference

Candidates must provide two letters or references from a teacher, guidance counselor, employer or community leader.

Selection Decision

A committee chosen by NPSCU will make the selection of the successful candidates. Their decision is final and not open to debate. Applications and accompanying documents will not be returned to the applicants.

Photograph Publication

Recipients of the awards must agree to have their name and photograph published. Applicants under 18 years of age must have the consent of a parent/guardian (see consent at the bottom of the application).

Confirmation of Enrollment

The bursary will be payable on receipt of documentation by NPSCU confirming acceptance into the institution for post-secondary education, to the Registrar of the institution. The recipient is eligible to postpone the bursary for a maximum of one year from the date of the award.
